The Cotton LEADS™ Commitment to Cotton

We, the signatories and founding members of the Cotton LEADS™ program, recognize the need to advance the supply and use of responsibly-produced cotton through international and national efforts. We commit to the five core principles of the Cotton LEADS™ program as the foundation for an effective program that fosters the ability of supply chain entities to meet the world's demand for responsibly-produced cotton. We support the use of cottons from the Cotton LEADS™ program in our supply chain.
